My dear Sir

In answer to yours, which I rec'd on Saturday Eve I will say that I don't think that I can lend the money, but I don't know why I can't give some for the object, thro your society or some other one, say one in Boston, If you can get the balance from other individuals, I will give from the bequest, for the slave, 100^{ff}, will this, or is there anythg in the way to prevent it,

I shall be away, for about two weeks, and on my return should like to hear from you,

Yours truly
Wm. Lloyd Garrison
